100 Dollars Reward.

I WILL give the above reward to any person who will return to my possession, negro LAWRENCE, who assumes the sirname of FENWICK. This fellow left my farm, on the Wicomico river, in Charles county, Md. on the 6th July, in consequence of his own outrageous conduct towards my overseer. He is a negro of a fine erect figure, good features, a smooth black skin, rather above the middle stature, of a youthful appearance for one of thirty years of age, and of great plausibility and natural smartness. His ears grow remarkably close to his head, and on the inside of his lower lip he has a white mark or spot. I purchased him 4 years ago of the estate of Mrs. P. H. Courts, of this county. I am led (by circumstances which have come to my knowledge since he absconded,) to believe that he will endeavor to make his way to King George county, Va.; should he not take this route, he will probably be met with in the District of Columbia, or in the upper counties of this state, on his way to Pennsylvania. I apprehend he will change his name, and if committed to jail, refuse to state to whom he belongs, as the misconduct which preceded his departure, & his absconding, have all appeared since to have been premeditated. He took all his clothes with him, of which he had a large number; among them—a new bear-skin over-coat, a long close-bodied blue coat, a pair of striped jean pantaloons, one or more white waistcoats, besides many articles of coarse cloathing; these, however, he will probably exchange, or sell them for cash to defray his travelling expenses.

I will give the above reward to any person who will bring him home to me, or FIFTY DOLLARS if confined in jail, and notice given me, so that I recover him.—Should he be taken out of the state, I will also pay all reasonable costs and charges which may attend the bringing him home.

100 Dollars Reward.

RAN off from my plantation on the 25th inst. a bright Mulatto Slave, named,

FREDERICK,

(commonly known by his associates as Frederick Bankhead.) He is about 25 years of age, 5 feet 8 or 10 inches high, active and intelligent, stammers a little when spoken to, with a large scar on his upper lip, grey eyes and curly hair, which he generally keeps cut and combed in fashion.—He had on when he ran away, brown linen trowsers and shirt, a leather apron and a checked handkerchief, red and blue, tied around his waist, a pair of New England sale shoes, no other clothing with him. I will give for him to be secured in any jail out of the state of Virginia, of District of Columbia, so that I get him again, 100 dols. If taken in Washington or Georgetown 30; if in Alexandria town or county, 50 dolls. or if in any town or county in Virginia, 50 dollars, and all reasonable charges, if delivered to me, or to the jailor of Fairfax county, who is authorised by this advertisement, to receive him, for safe keeping.

Notice,

To Wheelwrights, Blacksmiths, Tanners, Harness-Makers, Saddlers, Hatters, &c.

BELIEVING as I do, that PROVIDENCE, at Fairfax Court-House, would be a suitable situation for mechanics of the above description, I offer to such, lots in that village for sale, on ground rent for ever—will build and furnish suitable houses and rent to them, or furnish brick to them to build with; and invite any who feel disposed to settle there, for the purpose of carrying on their respective trades to advantage, to come and view the situation. It is a very public place, the centre of the county, where the superior and county courts are held. The Little River Turnpike Road passes through this little town from Alexandria westward, and where all the public meetings for the county, &c. are held; and where trades of the aforesaid description being carried on, would meet with great encouragement, and be a public convenience to the country around. No situation can be more healthy—good water, and fire wood cheap. Mechanics of the above description must generally depend on the country people, farmers, &c. to be their customers. Here they would be in a convenient situation for all the purposes. I invite a call, and view for themselves. I would also furnish lots adjacent, from one to five acres each, for cultivation, pasture, &c. on moderate terms; all of which can be shown, and terms made known, on application to RICH'D. 100 Dollars Reward.

RAN away on the 28th of April, from the farm of the subscriber, in Dogue Neck, Fairfax Co. Virginia, negro HARRY, aged about twenty three years, about five feet ten inches high, very black, well built, has a considerable impediment in his speech, when spoken to evinces much confusion, and replies almost unintelligibly; had on when he left home, a much worn suit of domestic cloth. I have every reason to believe that he is endeavoring to pass for a free man, and as such went off in some of the bay craft during the late fishing season. All masters of vessels are forewarned from harboring or taking into their employ said negro, under penalty of having the law rigidly enforced against them. I will give twenty dollars, if taken in the county of Fairfax, or district of Columbia; if beyond that distance, the above reward, provided he is secured in jail so that I get him again. THE subscriber has now for sale a number of the most valuable tracts, in both of those rich and improving bodies of lands, and can supply applicants with any number they may wish, and in any part of either territory. COMMUNICATION.

There are two inducements to visit the theatre this evening—a new historical play, and an able company of performers—each of which should draw a numerous audience. The play is by Mr. Payne, an American, formerly of this theatre, and is represented to be equal to any dramatic production of the present century. It is now presented with the Philadelphia and Baltimore cast of character; and in this instance our citizens will have an opportunity of seeing how plays are performed in those cities. Of the talents of the company, we have had two specimens, which have abundantly proved their skill. We are now offered another, and the last, its engagements at the north requiring an immediate removal thither. THESPIS.

Mr. George Reading of Baltimore, on Tuesday evening last, about 9 miles from Havre-de Grace, was met by a foot pad, armed with a pistol, who rushed from a thicket on the side of the road, calling out stop, at the same time jumping at the horse, and demanding his money. The horse being spirited took fright, and the rider was enabled to make his escape without injury.

The three foot pads who stopped a gentleman on his way from Abington, and robbed him of his money, we learn have been apprehended, and are now lodged in jail at Bell-Air. An officer leaves here to-morrow to escort them to Baltimore.

Balt. Telegraph, August 13.

Baltimore, August 12.

An attempt was made last night to set fire to a warehouse in the rear of a house on Market street; the combustibles were found this morning, partly consumed, and in a situation which puts beyond doubt the intention of the person who placed them there. Other similar attempts, we learn, have lately been made; the knowledge of which ought to induce the citizens to be on the alert, to guard their property, and, if possible, to discover the incendiaries.

[Federal Gazette.

On Tuesday last, a jury of inquest was held before Coroner Aisquith, over the body of Owen Herrington at Fell's Point; the verdict of the jury was, "that his death was occasioned by a wound given him on the right side of his head with a small chair by a woman named Mary Fulmer." The woman has been committed to prison. [Ibid.

FROM VERA CRUZ.

UNEXAMPLED PRODUCT.

It is asserted, that, on the Farm of Samuel Cope, in Eastbradford, Chester co. Pennsylvania, there was found this season a root of wheat, which produced 102 stalks, and all well headed. One of the heads (the only one counted) contained 62 grains. If the other heads were as well filled, the product must have been upwards of six thousand grains of wheat from a single root.

Natchez, July 21.

Extract of a letter from Gen. LONG, the chief of the army of Texas, dated

"Nacagdoches, July 12, 1819.

"I started to go to Natchez, but a rumor of the enemy advancing on us, compelled me to remain, or to loose the confidence of the men I command, and broke up the expedition, which is now in the most prosperous condition—nothing will prevent our success.—We increase daily in soldiers and citizens, they join us from all parts, and I find myself much better supported than I expected—every thing is in good train, and there is no doubt of the success of the Republican army."

From other sources it is understood that Aradonsa heads the troops opposed to gen. Long.

From the New-Orleans Chronicle.

The following fact, though altogether worthy of being remembered, has never, I believe, been reported by the pen of any historian.

Lest it should be thought a mere fabrication to occupy a vacant column in the newspaper, I think it not unimportant to note, that the subject of this memoir, Mr. Hunter, is well known in Darlington district, South-Carolina; and the following narrative, which I had from himself, familiar to his friends and acquaintance.

Hunter, though a youth perhaps of 18 years old, was very active in defence of his country's rights during the revolutionary war. It was the fate of this their in arms to fall into the hands of Major Fanning, whose deeds as a cruel partizan leader, in the service of Great Britain, are written in North and South Carolina in characters of bloood. Hunter, whose active services had roused the ire of the Major, was told upon the spot to prepare for his fate, which was nothing less than death, for which awful event a few minutes only were allowed him to prepare. A band of tories, thirsting for the blood of a patriot, instantly formed a circle round the boy, leaving him no reasonable chance of escape.

At this moment thought followed thought in quick succession. His home, his friends, his country, and the circumstances under which he was about to be torn from them all, together with the reflection that he must quickly realize a state of untried being, crowded upon his mind, and called up feelings not to be described.

For the first time he bent his knees to the power which wields the destinies of man, and no sooner had he breathed a wish to the throne of mercy, than he felt a strong persuasion that deliverance was possible. This important point settled in his mind, he cast his eyes round in search of the means to be employed. At the distance of a few paces from the encircling band stood a beautiful filly, furnished with the major's riding establishment, complete. This animal, late the idol of sportsmen in Virginia, had fallen into the hands of the present owner, and was highly prized, as affording the means of escape from impending danger.

"Cannot I," thought Hunter, "spring from my knees, gain the saddle, and under the favor of that power which has so fully assured my heart, escape this threatening death?" Having resolved, if he must perish, to perish in the attempt, he darted like lightning through his enemies, and seizing the bridle, which was held by a servant boy, as he vaulted into the saddle he put the major's courser to her speed, and went off with his booty, to the no small disappointment and mortification of the astonished beholders. After gazing awhile in stupid amazement, the redoubtable Fanning recollected that his soldiers had guns, but it was too late; and the order to "shoot at the rebel," was obeyed without effect.

From the Norfork, American Beacon of the 11th of August, 1819.

LATE EUROPEAN NEWS.

[BY THE SHIP HIOSON FROM CORK.]

In the British House of Commons, June 16th, Mr Peale, pursuant to the recommendation of the select committee on the Bank affairs, moved for, and obtained leave, to bring in a bill to regulate the transactions of the Bank, as far as they regarded loans to government. There were various modes of accomplishing this object—by requiring communications to be made to Parliament, &c.; but he thought the better plan to be, to prevent any loan from the Bank to government without an act of Parliament to warrant the loan.

On the same day Sir H. Parnell moved for a select committee to enquire into the expediency of regulating and assimilating the exchanges and currencies of England and Ireland, having been heretofore, very frequently affected by other circumstances than differences in the value of the circulating medium. The prices in the markets were consequently affected in a very undue manner; and with the view of correcting such an evil, he moved for the committee. As Parliament was now engaged in restoring the currency of this country to its fair standard, it was adviseable to adopt a similar proceeding regarding Ireland.

After some discussion and explanation between Sir H. Parnell and the Chancellor of the Exchequer, the motion was withdrawn.

Colonel Davis moved that the accounts previously ordered, of exports to, and imports from Buenos Ayres, be presented forthwith.—Ordered.

A Stockholm article of 28th May, states that a notification has been sent to the custom houses in Norway, to put ships belonging to the North American States, with respect to the duties both on ships and merchandize, on the same footing as those of the most favored nations.

A private correspondent of a Dublin paper, writing from London under date of 14th June, says—"A deputation consisting of Lord Lascelles, Lord Milton, Sir J. Graham, Mr. S. Wortley, and other Gentlemen, waited this morning on Lord Liverpool, in order to point out to him the ill effects that would result to the Manufacturers from the additional duty on foreign wool. Lord Liverpool, we understand, however, stated that his Majesty's Ministers still intended to adhere to their original intention on this subject; more especially as it was their anxious wish to give every assistance in their power to the agricultural interest, by encouraging as much as possible, wool, the growth of this kingdom."

Advices from Vera Cruz to 31st March, received in Dublin, mention that Mr. Park the British Commissioner had succeeded in purchasing from the Government, and from private individuals, specie to the amount of 1,500,000 dollars, which he had paid for in Notes on the British Treasury. This sum he immediately put on board the SYBILLE frigate, which was dispatched for England.—The accounts add, that the whole kingdom of Mexico continued to enjoy tranquility, and that the communication between the capital and the coast was uninterrupted.

TOBACCO DUTIES.

In the British House of Commons, June 11, Mr. Lamb (a member) enquired of ministers if the new duties on Tobacco, were intended to have a retrospective effect, so as to affect the stock of that article then on hand. Mr. Lushington, (in the absence of the Chancellor of the Exchequer) replied that he had no doubt that the new duties would have such a retrospective effect.

EXPEDITION FROM CADIZ.

An article in the Cork Courier, under date of Madrid, May 27, says, "A rumor is this morning circulated that the ship Alexander I. of 74 guns, which had been detained at Cadiz a few hours on the day of the departure of the southern expedition on account of some damage, has returned to harbor with new damages, which reduces the expedition to one ship and one frigate.

THE EMPEROR ALEXANDER.

We find the following article in the London Morning Chronicle of 12th June:

"The report, that the Emperor Alexander is assembling an immense body of troops in the vicinity of Petersburgh, gains ground, and gives rise to serious alarm.—It is said to be for the mere purpose of a Grand Review, and that he has invited the Duke of Wellington to be present at it—but it cannot be believed, that for the mere object of a holiday parade, he would, in the present state of his finances, incur the expense of marching his numerous armies from their distant quarters—and therefore it breeds a suspicion that the rumors respecting his design on Sweden, are not unfounded.

THE FRENCH NAVY.

The Paris Papers say, that France now possesses 246 ships of war, among which are 48 sail of the line and 29 frigates.—They are now building 11 sail of the line and 4 frigates.

London, June 12

City, one o'clock.—The funds continue to fluctuate. Omnium has been done in the early part of the day at 1 3 4 premium; it is now at a discount of 1 per cent. Consols for Account have fluctuated from 68¾ to 69¼, they are at this time 68¾. These variations are merely to answer the purpose of speculators.

WARS AND RUMORS OF WARS.

This morning we received Paris papers of Wednesday. The war party in France are actively engaged in propagating rumors of misunderstandings and disagreements between the various Powers of Europe, and endeavor to agitate the public mind, by the constant expectation of new hostilities. The communications which are said to have taken place between Sweden and Russia, on the subject of the debts of Denmark, have afforded ample scope for their warlike speculations. They have also embroiled Russia with Austria, and England with Russia; nor have the friendly relations of England and France escaped their disturbing propensities. It was asserted that all the British Officers in France have been recalled; but we believed that never in any former portion of our history, not even excepting the pacific administration of Sir Robert Walpole, was the government of Great Britain less desirous of courting the glories and the dangers of war than at the present moment. Happily no occasion offers itself which in the present state of this country could justify a renewal of hostilities; but such is our financial condition, and such the exhaustion of our resources, that foreign Powers may expect to find in our present Ministers apologists rather than avengers of their misconduct. Time was when the savage murder of two British subjects by a foreign General would not have been passed by with indifference.

CESSION OF THE FLORIDAS, &c.

The further consideration of the Report of the Foreign Enlistment Bill was, in the House of Commons last night, fixed for Wednesday next. In the mean time the bill, with the amendments made in the committee, will be printed. The pertinacity with which ministers persevere in this highly unpopular and impolitic measure, would lead us to suspect that they have some motives which they do not yet think fit to disclose. The cession of Cuba, lately stated in THE GLOBE, as mentioned in the American papers, would tend to explain their tardy zeal in the cause of Ferdinand; but if such a transaction had taken place, we cannot conceive any good reason for its concealment. The communication would remove whatever dissatisfaction may have been excited by the cession of Florida to the U. States. The rumor respecting Cuba is, therefore, probably unfounded, and for any credit it may obtain is indebted to the present extraordinary policy of our government. No one wishes to see the national honor sacrificed to commercial interests and pursuits; but if the treaty with Spain of 1814 involved that consequence, why have ministers since remained silent spectators of those proceedings on the part of British subjects now sought to be repressed? That treaty never received the sanction of a British parliament. The late Mr. Ponsonby, struck with its impolicy, had indeed given notice of a motion in the house of commons on the subject, which his untimely and lamented death prevented, and it never has been submitted even to the consideration of the house. But admitting its validity, it does not bind this country to new model our laws and institutions to suit the interests & purposes of Spain. Had we even altered our laws since the date of that treaty, so as to render them more unfavorable to Spain, our conduct would have been no impeachment of our honor and good faith, Spain having altered the state of her relations with this country materially to our disadvantage in the interval. Our services in her cause she has repaid with ingratitude in her commercial intercourse, and our political relations with America she has seriously injured by her cession of Florida.—There was a time, when, for this conduct, she would have been called to a severe account; but the age of chivalry is gone with our means to support it, and we are called upon to assist Spain against her insurgent colonies, on the ground of a treaty, the spirit of which she has violated by her own acts

COMMERCIAL.

Liverpool, June 9.

Colonial produce of almost every description continues exceedingly depressed, and many articles still recede; raw sugars exhibit the same retrogade tendency, but good middling and fine qualities, suitable for general consumption are less heavy of sale than low and brown, which are again lower. Our markets opened on Monday with an auction of 200 hhds St. Lucia, the first lot sold at 59s. & after having attempted successfully one or two consequent lots, the remainder were withdrawn. On Friday 254 hhds and 50 tierces Antigua, with 45 barrels of Tortola, were brought forward and the whole disposed of at 63s to 65s 3d for fair to good dry brown, 66s 6d to 74s 9d for low to fair middling, and 77s to 77s 9d for good and fine middling. On the following day 239 hhds. 75 tierces of Barbadoes were forced off at lower rates, viz. middling to good middling, 67s 9d to 77s 9d, and fine middling to bright, 78s to 85s 9d up to 81s for fine, being from 2s to 3s under the prices obtained at the preceding sale of this description; this depreciation was the occasion of two other parcels advertised for Thursday being withdrawn altogether. On Friday the market somewhat revived, 170 hhds and 11 tierces of Antigua, having gone off at an advance of 1s to 2s per cwt.; so that upon the whole of the transactions of the week, we cannot notice any material variation since our last. Foreign sugars are rarely enquired for; on Friday 111 chests, 43 bags of Brazil were attempted by auction, but withdrawn, the first lot being bought in at 43s. On Saturday 1091 bags of white Bengal were also ineffectually offered.—Refined sugars extremely heavy of sale.—Foreign molasses continue dull, 50 puncheons of Demerara were bought in with the exception of 10, which sold at 25s, the quality however was but thin. British remains very steady both as to demand and price.

The rum market continues much depressed, and though offered at lower rates, there are few purchasers to be found, good flavored Jamaica 16 O. P. may be obtained at 3s 8d to 3s 9d; and common flavors at 3s 4d to 3s 6d.—A parcel of strong leewards 14 O. P. have been bought at 3s per gallon, and common proofs may be purchased equally low. The export demand is almost wholly suspended, to the revival of which we can only look for an improvement in prices.

The features of the coffee market, tho' still destitute of animation, are by no means so languid as they have appeared for a long time past, and holders seem less disposed to seek for buyers at further reduced prices, otherwise sales might have been effected to some extent. The enquiries have been confined principally to St. Domingo, at and under 83s per cwt.—which offers have been refused. Some little business has however been done in good to fine ordinary Dutch at 88s to 92s; and very good St. Lucia at 110s, with a small lot good ordinary Jamaica at 90s per cwt. The London market having improved, has excited rather more confidence in this article here, and under any other circumstances than the existing widely extended commercial difficulty and alarm, we have no doubt this article would now become an object of considerable attention both to the exporter and speculator, but in the present state of the public mind, which has been rendered more unsettled by the financial embarrassment of the country, we do think this or any other article, however low at present, beyond the operation of unforeseen events, contingent on the above unfavorable circumstances.

The market for dyewoods last week has been more than usually uninteresting, not only to the event of business actually done, but as respects the enquiry. This probably proceeds in part from the suspension of business in Manchester and the neighborhood, during Whitsunweek, in which the races occur; there have not however been any lots brought forward by auction, and holders manifest no great anxiety to press the market in the absence of demand.

American produce offers very little worthy of remark, every description participates in the depression and languor which has so long characterised other kinds of foreign produce. The transactions in potashes have been very circumscribed, tho' at steady prices, but more business might have been effected had holders given way 1s or 2s per cwt. offers having been made at this reduction for Ireland.—Notwithstanding the very limited demand for pearls, the currency continues very firmly supported. It is very probable, however, rather lower terms would be accepted for a quantity.

We are unable to report any sales of Carolina rice. On Friday 325 tierces and 43 half tierces good new were attempted by auction without meeting any purchasers beyond one lot at 22s per cwt. in bond.—Nothing has been done in East India, the value of which is rather uncertain.

The report of an increase in the duty on tobacco has brought the trade into the market, of which the holders have availed themselves without demanding any advance on the recent reduction; this circumstance has however given a check to a further decline which has been gradually taking place for some weeks past, but as there is no prospect of an improved export demand, it is not probable that the market will experience any real amendment, particularly as the proposed measure must rather decrease the consumption of this article.

Our cotton market was throughout the week characterised by extreme languor, notwithstanding the imports during the preceding fortnight have been exceeding light owing to the adverse winds; and as the recent advices from America are of a nature to encourage the expectation of extensive supplies, in consequence of the great reduction of the currency in that quarter, this circumstance added to the already overwhelming stock, must rather increase the gloom which hangs over this important branch of our commerce, than brighten the prospect of an early return of life and animation.

The transactions of last week are estimated at near 55,000 bags, and though no general decline has taken place, yet holders have in some instances, acceded to a small reduction particularly in middling qualities of Boweds and Orleans, and at the same time evinced an extreme anxiety to rid themselves of part of their stock of other descriptions at our quotations. Of the Boweds about 1500 were bought by the trade, the remainder having merely changed hands and are yet in the market.—The whole of the Bengals have been taken for speculation and export.

Tallow has further declined 1s to 2s per cwt. at which reduction there are few buyers. Yellow candles, 67s to 68s 6d.—No variation whatever in hemp, and the demand pretty fair. Petersburgh pearl ashes are offered at 38s per cwt. without finding buyers.

The timber trade for the last two or three weeks has been tolerably good, particularly as respects the demand for British pine, and holders have rather facilitated sales by making some concession to be buyers.

The Corn Exchange on Tuesday exhibited a much larger attendance of country dealers than for some months past, and promised a fair extent of business, which was but partial. The sales of wheat were but moderate, but of the full currency last quoted. Oats went off rather briskly, and mostly obtained an advance of 1d per bushel. Flour was also more saleable at previous rates, as well as barley, some choice sales of which realized 3d above our quotations; the other articles remain much the same as before mentioned. Saturday maintained the stiffness noted on Tuesday, particularly in oats, but the sales were inconsiderable.

The Irish butter market is not settled, old qualities are very unsaleable, while new brings our highest quotations with a fair demand, our supplies as yet continue moderate. No variation yet worth notice in provisions of any description.

June 12.

Only 630 hhds of sugar were brought forward to public sale this week; 500 of which sold, brown and middling qualities declined 1s, whilst good and fine went at 1s higher.—About 100 hhds have gone off by private sale.

Coffee has been much looked after by speculators this week, but holders generally refusing to sell little business has been done.

The demand for coffee this week has been pretty steady, although not brisk; the quantity sold amounts to 6400 bags, of which 143 were Sea Island at 23d to 26½d; 850 Pernambucco 17d to 18½; 350 Maranhams 15½ to 16¼; 1000 Orleans 11½ to 13½; with 110 prime at 15 to 16d; 670 Demaras 14 to 15½, and 20 good 17d, and 2169 Boweds 11½ to 12¼d and 13d per lb.

Tuesday (8th) market of grain was well attended by buyers, who would have taken wheat freely at former prices, but holders generally demanding an advance of 3d per bushel, no extent of business was done. Oats were in good demand, and considerable sales effected at 3d per bushel higher rates. In barley and beans there was no alteration in prices, although in better demand.

New butters are in good request, Belfast sells for 96s. little arrived. Beef and Pork remain in a dull state, and prices down. Bacon sells in small parcels slowly.

Tallow in very trifling request. Both flax and hemp are without demand

Lands for Sale.

BY VIRTUE of a power of attorney from William S. Courts to the subscriber, will be sold at public sale,

ON WEDNESDAY, the 19th AUGUST, in Port Tobacco, that valuable tract of land whereon John H. Barnes at present resides called lying and being in Charles county Maryland, containing between three and four hundred acres. This land is handsomely situated, lying immediately on Matawoman Creek, at least one third of which is in wood, with a sufficient quantity of marsh land for grazing—that part of the land which is in cultivation is well adapted to the growth of corn, wheat and tobacco, and with proper care would be equal, if not superior to any land in that neighborhood.

ALSO,

At the same time and place, will be offered for sale the plantation at present in the occupancy of Francis & Sam'l Wheeler, lying about one mile from the above place, containing about four hundred acres. As it is presumed that persons wishing to purchase will first view the premises, it is thought unnecessary to give a more particular description thereof. The terms of sale will be as follows: viz. possession given on the first day of January next, at which time one third of the purchase money will be required, the remaining two thirds at one and two years the purchaser giving bond with approved security with interest.—Upon the payment of the whole purchase money, a sufficient deed will be executed to the purchaser.

JOHN HOPKINS

Hill and Dale, April 20.

Gunston for Sale.

THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 16 miles below Alexandria—it is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Pohick creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shad and herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided if requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaister acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania.—I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity. A manufacturing mill is distant about two miles, on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain: being bounded on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole: it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The improvements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary outhouse, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish houses at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of live fence, both useful and ornamental, two orchards of well selected apples and peach, besides an abundance of other choice fruit. More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 250 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all might,) have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abound with wild fowl, particularly canvass backs, the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Mules, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensels and household furniture can be had. The terms of sale will be accommodating. Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the Ridge, will be taken in payment.—Letters must be addressed to me at Pohick Church, Fairfax county, Virginia.

S. Drew, Merchant Tailor,

Removed from Fairfax-street to the corner of King and Columbus streets, and his prices falling

RESPECTFULLY acquaints his customers and the citizens in general that he has removed as above, where he will study to give satisfaction. He has by him a small but well assorted stock of goods, which will be found on inspection to be of the best quality, the whole of which he wishes to sell low for cash, and as further inducements to purchasers he offers to cut out any goods, bought of him to any size or pattern gratis.

S. Drew aware, of the advantage a ready money business has over one where long credit is given, thinks that a distinction ought to be made in the prices in each case: and as the price of provisions are low at present, he is glad to be able to announce to those customers who will feel disposed to pay him ready money for his work, that he will reduce the price of making to them according to the present journeymen's wages; and to prevent any supposed imposition on the one hand or disatisfaction on the other he is willing to be governed by the printed regulations of prices by which the journeymen are paid in Alexandria.

N. B. Bread, flour, beef, groceries, liquors or any thing valuable taken in exchange for clothes.

S. Drew has this day opened a tavern in the same house, where he has laid in a a supply of Philadelphia and the district porter and ale, together with liquors of the best quality, and he feels confident that he shall be able to give satisfaction to all who will please to favor him with a call.—He is fitting up his house for the accommodation of boarders, travellers, &c. and from its central situation, good beds and stabling, together with other requisites, he presumes that it will be found a convenient establishment. may 25

PROSPECTUS

Of a new periodical work to be published in the city of Washington, entitled the Washington Theological REPERTORY.

EDITORS { Rev. WM HAWLEY, Washington,
Rev. WM. H. WILMER, Alexandria,
Rev. OLIVER NORRIS, Alexandria,
Rev. REUEL KEITH, Georgetown.

Assisted by several other literary gentlemen of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

IF any apology were necessary for this undertaking, it may be found in the fact, that there is no publication on a similar plan, in all that section of our country lying south of New-York, and but one in the whole of the United States. It has been matter of equal surprize and regret, that the Episcopal Church should be so far behind other Christian denominations, in similar efforts to disseminate the principles of religion and piety. At a period like the present, when the Lord is preparing his way on earth, by the most remarkable efforts of human agency, and the most wonderful operations of his providence and grace—when we perceive in every part of Christendom, a praise-worthy emulation to share in the glorious work of filling the earth with the knowledge of the only true God, and his Son Jesus Christ; it would seem criminal for any to withhold their exertions, however feeble, in the great enterprize of human happiness and salvation. The editors have, therefore, felt it their duty to make this humble effort to supply this acknowledged deficiency on the part of the church in this section of the country, and to bear their share in the common exertions of Christians to promote the Redeemer's Kingdom. And having obtained the services of a gentleman, in whose talents and principles they have confidence, whose time will be wholly devoted to the superintendence of the work, they feel encouraged to solicit the patronage of the public.

The publecation will be conducted under the immediate inspection and control of the above named editors, who will form a committee to review every article intended for publication. The principles upon which it will be conducted are those of the bible, as illustrated in the articles, Liturgy and Homilies of the Protestant Episcopal Church. As members of this church the editors will feel bound to support the Apostolical character of her institutions, the pious tendency of her rites and ceremonies, and the evangelical nature of her doctrines. But in these, and all other discussions, they hope never to loose sight of that great law of charity whcih teaches us to "preserve the unity of the spirit in the bond of peace."

Acting upon those catholic principles, so long and so successively pursued by "The Christian Observer," their chief object will be to inculcate sound theological knowledge, and to delineate and recommend pure and vital religion. They trust therefore, that while the members of every Christian denomination may find something edifying and instructive, none will discover any just cause for offence in the pages of this work. General subjects of biblical criticism, practical illustrations of scriptural truth, the biography of illustrious persons, evidences of the truth of revelation, essays on the history and polity of the church, reviews of interesting publications, religious, literary and philosophical intelligence—in short, whatever is connected with the promotion of religion, humanity and literature, will find a place in this repository.

The testimony of experience supersedes the necessity of dwelling on the advantages of a periodical publication on the plan proposed. Its obvious tendency will be to render the various departments of religious knowledge more easy and accessible, and give a more ready currency and wider circulation, to those great truths which involve the present welfare and future destiny of man.

It will tend powerfully to stimulate the exertions of the editors, and console them under the difficulties attendant on the prosecution of this work, amidst many other avocations, should it prove the means under the blessing of God, of enriching any of its readers with the saving knowledge of Christ, and prepare them for a participation in the felicity and glory of his heavenly kingdom. With this hope they commit it into his hands, and confidently solicit their brethren of the clergy and laity to assist them in carrying into effect the objects of the undertaking.

TERMS OF THE WORK.

A volume of the Repertory shall consist of twelve numbers, of which one shall be published on the first day of every month, containing thirty-two large octavo pages, stitched in blue, and attended with a table of contents.

The paper used in the work shall be good, and the typography executed with the greatest care.

The price of a volume is two dollars, payable in advance; to such as omit the advance, two dollars and fifty cents.

It is designed to enlarge the size of the work, without increasing the price, as soon as one thousand subscribers shall be obtained.

Communications and remittances may be directed to any of the editors, post paid.

Any person becoming responsible for five subscribers, shall receive a sixth copy gratis.

The first number may be expected in the month of July. June 26
